

Process for Determining Executive Director Salary

Executive Director receives an annual performance review from the Board of Directors. Compensation and benefits are adjusted based on this review and on Executive Director's achievement of organizational strategic, fundraising and performance goals.