

Designated Donation Policy

Giving Children Hope is committed to ensuring that contributions given to a specific program or crisis are used for that intended purpose. A small percentage of the donation may be allocated to cover its administrative and fundraising costs at Giving Children Hope's discretion. If donations exceed the need, the donation may be allocated to other projects that help Giving Children Hope fulfill its mission to love our neighbors across the street and around the world through product and partnerships.